

A contemporary thinks that Gen. Burgeside's sword is far mightier than his pen.

A great deal of military learning has been expended upon the question "Why Hooker fell back." We suspect that his falling back was rather a matter of necessity than inclination.

State ticket if they hear the candidates advocate these resolutions. A member of that committee does not hesitate to declare that he believes Mr. Lincoln's emancipation proclamation is both constitutional and expedient, and to deplore the successes of the Democrats in the North in the elections of last October and November.

BUCKEYE REAPER

A black and white illustration showing a horse-drawn machine, possibly a pump or engine, being moved through a wooden gate. A man in a hat and overalls stands next to the machine, and another man stands to the right. The machine is being pulled by a horse. The scene is set outdoors with a fence and trees in the background.

FARMERS,
WE INVITE YOUR PARTICULAR ATTENTION to the above cnt, which represents our celebrated Buckeye Machine passing from one field to another.
We have been selling this Machine five seasons, and of the hundreds sold by us in Kentucky and Indiana, no one has failed to give most perfect satisfaction.
I am telling that Machine which has more points
